

School of Education
Graduate Student Travel Grant Application
2020-2021

The School of Education Graduate Student Travel Award Program makes available limited funding for a graduate student who is 1) a first author or co-author with UM SOE faculty on a research presentation, 2) recognized through an award for his or her original scholarship, or 3) conducting original research for an approved thesis project, or 4) attending a conference in support of the School of Education's strategic initiatives. The SOE Graduate Student Travel Award Program will provide up to $300 for such travel/research. Students should complete this form working with designated staff in the departments of Higher Education, Leadership & Counselor Education, and Teacher Education. The designated staff will submit the forms and other UM travel related forms to the Associate Dean of the School of Education at least 10 days prior to the first date of travel.
